

Asking Questions

- 1 First! Remember to think of who, what, when, where, why and how as you read.
- 2 Write down the questions you thought of in the box below, even if you find the answer by reading further on.
- 3 Was thinking of questions while reading easy or tricky? Why?
- 4 Were any of your questions not answered? Make a list of ways you could research the answers.
- 5 What other things from the book are you wondering about? Write them down as a question to research too!

Write your questions down and check them off when you know the answer!

A large, empty rounded rectangular box for writing notes, connected to the "My notes" thought bubble by a line.