

Prepositions

- 1 Prepositions describe where something is happening. For example, you sit on a chair, and you crawl under a table. The prepositions say where you are sitting, or crawling.
- 2 Read a chapter of your book and make a list of all the prepositions.
- 3 What other prepositions can you think of? Add them to your list!
- 4 Using your list, make up instructions for a partner using each of the words!

• Prepositions usually come before nouns:
... in America
... at the beach
... between the trees. •

A large, empty rounded rectangular box for taking notes, connected to the "My notes" graphic by a line.