Weather Monsters

Informational

Pretend you are a news reporter when one of the weather monsters attacks. Write a news article about the storm – include what happened, when it happened, how it happened, why it happened, and who was affected.

Weather Monsters

Letter writing

Write a letter to your school principal about how your school could prepare for different types of bad weather. What things would be useful to have for each weather monster?

Weather Monsters

Opinion

Do people worry too much about the weather, or do you think we should be more worried? Write an essay explaining your opinion.

Weather Monsters

Research

Find out what kinds of bad weather happen sometimes in your hometown, and write a report on this. What kind of bad weather can happen, what damage can this do, and what can people do to stay safe?
